If you think the Minute Man Project kicked Congress and the president with a collective foot up their tail feathers, you will love “Minute Man Project Second Salvo.”

After interviewing Jim Gilchrist, head of the Minute Man Project, I can assure Americans another more powerful second go-around that will hit at the heart of the illegal alien migration crisis. Gilchrist, a battle hardened and decorated U.S. Marine during Vietnam will launch the second faze of the Minute Man Project.

“I’m going after the heavy hitters, the CEO’s and corporation heads of companies that hire illegal aliens from Hawaii to Maine, from Michigan to Florida,” Gilchrist said. “I’m enlisting the Criminal Investigative Division of the Internal Revenue Service as well as the Bureau of Immigration Customs and Enforcement. Some of the top lawyers in the land will prosecute to the fullest extent of Federal Law.”

Gilchrist said, “We know from the Bears and Stearns report that illegal aliens working off the books siphon over $400 billion a year from the IRS in uncollected taxes. American citizens not only lose their jobs to illegals, but they have to make up the difference from so many millions of illegals not paying income tax to the IRS. I’m here to tell you that the IRS doesn’t like tax evaders. Ask Al Capone!”

What do you hope to achieve Mr. Gilchrist? “I’m looking for top executives who drive Bentleys and live in 10,000 square foot homes with a Lear Jet in the “air garage” to be taken out of their offices in handcuffs,” Gilchrist said. “My lawyers are going to prosecute them, take away their Aspen luxury home and nail them for hard time.”

According to Federal and RICO Laws, it is a Federal felony to hire an illegal alien and up to $10,000.00 fine for each illegal and up to five years in prison. Gilchrist said he would take those law breaking employers to court. He will gather all the evidence with his growing army of volunteers in all 50 states.

“They can run and they can hide and they might even pay the fine,” Gilchrist said. “But they will not escape jail time with these Federal Lawyers from the Criminal Investigative Division of the Internal Revenue Service.”

For anyone who wants to become a member of the Legal Minute Man Project, you may visit: <http://www.minutemanproject.com> Gilchrist needs people to report companies hiring illegal aliens in cities and states across America. He needs digital pictures for the best evidence so faces can be checked when prosecution time arrives.

THE MINUTEMAN PROJECT

An alternative to political corruption, dereliction of duty, and blatant disregard for the rule of law.

SEEKS VOLUNTEERS

The MinuteMan Project seeks volunteers for three separate programs to continue bringing national awareness to the illegal alien invasion crisis imperiling the United States.

Operation Border Watch - California will direct itself toward illegal activity at the California-Mexico border only. It commences on August 1, 2005 for an indefinite time.

Operation Border Watch - Multi-State will direct its efforts at illegal activity at all US border states. It commences on October 1, 2005 for an indefinite time.

The above two operations will provide outpost observation and reporting activities similar to those provided by The Minuteman Project in Arizona this past April.

Concurrently, Operation Spotlight will be directed at the deliberate neglect of immigration and tax law enforcement by America's elected and appointed public officials and other persons and businesses who routinely violate these laws. It will also focus on the one-half TRILLION dollar annual tax evasion that accompanies these illegal activities, which deficit is unfairly passed on to American citizen taxpayers.

Volunteers for this effort will be recruited from the public pool of former investigators and prosecuting attorneys from the Criminal Investigation Divisions of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), The Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), other law enforcement organizations, and from the private legal sector. More information on Operation Spotlight will be available after May 20.

-- Andy Ramirez, founder of Friends of the Border Patrol, is organizing Operation Border Watch - California.

-- James Chase, founder of United States Border Patrol Auxiliary, is organizing Operation Border Watch - Multi-State.

Once again, these events will tune Americans into the shameful fact that 21st century minutemen/women/children have to help secure US borders and encourage the enforcement of U.S. immigration and tax laws because the US government REFUSES to provide the U.S. Border Patrol (USBP) and the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) with the funding required to effectively carry out their functions.

A minimum increase of 500% (five-hundred percent) in funding for both the USBP and the ICE are necessary to provide these agencies with the resources necessary (personnel, equipment, etc.) to adequately enforce and prosecute the laws currently under their respective jurisdictions.

The Minuteman Project welcomes inquiries from any law enforcement or tax authority.

The MMProject maintains a policy of openness to all media who operate within the professional canons of journalism.

Media members, please be forewarned that attempts to "create" hostile news events may result in a complete shut down of media access to The Minuteman Project. For example, during the project recently conducted in Arizona the following two ugly-media incidents occurred:

1. A reporter from The Arizona Daily Star -Tucson, Az. twice attempted to "spook" members of the MMP who were staffing an outpost on a moonless night, during the height of death threats against the MMP, in an effort to shock them into drawing their hand guns, thus providing the reporter with a story of how the MMP volunteers drew their guns on him. The attempt to shock the MMP volunteers into a serious, perhaps violent, confrontation failed.
2. Channel 5 KPHO - Phoenix, Az. sent two undercover reporters, who had falsely signed up as bone-fide MMP volunteers, into the MMP camp at Miracle Valley Bible College in Hereford, Az. The reporters, without anyone's knowledge, and with hidden cameras and microphones, spent two days secretly filming volunteers and encouraging them to make derogatory racial comments so that the TV station would have a preconceived, mean-spirited story to present on the television air waves about the MMProject volunteers. That ruse also failed. We insist that we are a multi-ethnic, all-American crew of volunteers, but some unprofessional journalists who use their jobs as a means to carry out personal socio-politico agendas, will not tolerate the truth.

The social and economic issues that The Minuteman Project is addressing is extremely sensitive and it will take only one fabricated, hostile news story to set off some "whacko" to kill or seriously maim innocent Minuteman Project volunteers or illegal aliens. Please self-police your journalism counterparts and do not encourage them to bring hatred and violence against us, or those who oppose us.
